CITIZEN PARTICIPATION – ON AGENDA ITEMS & NON-AGENDA ITEMS

All may attend to listen only at this Special Meeting.

The Oregon Attorney General’s Public Records and Public Meetings Manual states that the Public Meetings Law is a public attendance law, not a participation law. “The right of public attendance guaranteed by Public Meetings Law does not include the right to participate by public testimony or comment [...] Governing bodies voluntarily may allow limited public participation at their meetings” (Attorney General Rosenblum, 2019, p. 155). Additionally, the Oregon Attorney General’s Manual states, “The presiding officer has inherent authority to keep order and to impose any reasonable restrictions necessary for the efficient and orderly conduct of a meeting. If public participation is to be a part of the meeting, the presiding officer may regulate the order and length of appearances and limit appearances to presentations of relevant points. Any person who fails to comply with reasonable rules of conduct or who causes a disturbance may be asked or required to leave, and upon failure to do so becomes a trespasser. The law's requirement that 'all persons be permitted to attend any meeting' does not prevent governing bodies from maintaining order at meetings" (Attorney General Rosenblum, 2019, p. 156).
